HOPKINSVILLE, APR. 11, 1882

Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals,
THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

Mrs. Emily E. Bristow, mother of ex-Secretary B. H. Bristow and Major F. H. Bristow, died at Elkhorn Ky., April 3, after a painful and protracted illness.

Does the Louisville Commercial live up to the "code of morals" it prescribes for Democratic candidates? We will not hold our breath till we get an affirmative answer!

W. C. Coup, the showman, has purchased Galtman's clothes that he wore when the killed President Garfield and also the suit worn during his trial. The price paid was $350.

The anti-Chinese bill, which prohibits immigration for twenty years, has been vetoed by the President. Another bill making it ten years has been introduced by Senator Miller.

The Governor has appointed Col. F. L. Chesney, editor of the Paris Citizen, Col. H. Thompson, Louisville and Hon. Linn Boyd, Louisville, as Railroad Commissioners for Kentucky.

A number of lawyers met in Louisville last Wednesday and organized a State Bar Association. Judge B. F. Backer, of Lexington, was made President and Geo. Baker, of Louisville, Secretary.

C. T. Bushong suicided by shooting at Glasgow. He had been, as he claimed, unjustly indicted by the grand jury for burning his house, and shot himself in the head while alone in his room.

The indications begin to look decidedly like the Capitol would be removed to Louisville. That city offers $2,000,000 as a bonus and a majority of the members of the Legislature favor removal.

The old Second District loses two counties. Ohio goes to the Fourth and Mahlenburg to the Third. This cuts out two prominent candidates for Congress—Hon. E. D. Walker, of Hartford, and W. H. Yost, Jr., of Greenville.

The two factions of the Democratic party in Tennessee will call a joint gubernatorial convention and attempt to unify the party in the State. It is to be hoped they will succeed and nominate a candidate who will be acceptable to both factions.

Sara Bernhardt was married in London last Tuesday to a wealthy French actor named Damala. She will continue her theatrical career. The couple are pretty well "heeled," Sara is worth 1,200,000 francs and Damala is also quite rich.

The President has nominated Henry M. Teller, of Colorado, for Secretary of the Interior to succeed Kirkwood, and Wm. E. Chandler, of New York, to succeed Hunt as Secretary of the Navy. Hunt is nominated as Minister to Russia.

The time has come for the Democrats of Christian county to make a fight to win. The Republican ticket is not a strong one as a whole and it is the Democrats will put out good men they can get some of the offices, if not all. Let this be done at once and let the skirmishing begin so that the troops may be ready for heavy fighting next summer.

Another somewhat modified anti-Chinese bill will be passed by Congress and it will be vetoed. It is the opinion of politicians of both parties that Arthur's action will sound the death knell of the Republican party in the Pacific states. The bill was a Democratic measure and the greatest blunder of President Arthur's administration was his refusal to sign it.

President Arthur's cabinet as reconstructed now stands:

R. G. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State.
W. H. Folger, Secretary of the Treasury.
H. M. Teller, Secretary of the Interior.
R. T. Lincoln, Secretary of War.
H. H. Brewster, Attorney General.
T. O. Howe, Postmaster General.

Lincoln is the only member of Garfield's cabinet who has not been bounced.

Old John Bender, the infamous human butcher of Kansas, who with his daughter Kate murdered so many people until hunted down a few years ago, has been arrested and identified at St. Louis. The way travelers were murdered is well known. Kate would entice them into the lonely road side inn they kept and get them with their heads to a canvas screen when the old man would brush them with an axe and their bodies would never again be heard of.

Mr. H. M. McCarty has sold his paper, the Elizabethian News, to Messrs. W. W. Anderson and J. A. Sommers, who will continue its publication as heretofore. Mr. McCarty is one of the veteran journalists of Kentucky and in his retiring from the News he wishes it understood that his editorial career is by no means at an end, but he will continue in his chosen profession in some other quarter. His successors are young men of merit and capacity and we wish them success.

Capt. Henry.

Capt. Thos. J. Henry is charged by the Louisville Commercial with being on a spree in Louisville, a few days since, and behaving in a disgraceful manner. It charges that he got drunk, visited other places than the Y. M. C. A., and used obscene language in the office of the Willard Hotel within the hearing of ladies. These charges, if true, are not complimentary to Capt. Henry. The Breckinridge News without stopping to ask into the truth of the charges, hauls down Capt. Henry's name and refuses to support him for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. While we do not desire to appear as the champion of such conduct, we are constrained to take a common-sense view of the matter, and to Ed. Madden to have the State Journal situate him as "A Mr. Madden."

If a man wants to find out how many "promising" young men there are in the country let him go into the collecting business.

The "fall timber" at Frankfort does not seem disposed to imitate the example of other timber at this season of the year and levee.

A Hartford debating society has settled a mooted question for the people of Kentucky and decided that Gov. Blackburn has not abused his prerogative power.

The Louisville Post has heard of a young man who "committed suicide by shooting himself." Did you ever hear of anybody who suicided by drinking one drop of intoxicating liquor as a beverage. We are opposed to keeping the question of temperance brought into politics; Capt. Henry had not been intoxicated for five years and we have no doubt that it was a "put up job" on him. He does not deny that he was intoxicated and he comes forward and says that he will abide by the decision of the Democratic Committee and withdraw if they think best. He says that not being used to drinking he became intoxicated before he realized it and that such an accident shall not occur again. This is all that an honorable man can do. The other charges were probably exaggerated, but if true what have they to do with a man's qualifications for office? It is well known that all men are not particularly pious. If it comes to this, let a guilty man throw the first stone at Capt. Henry. Let those who threaten to withdraw their support from him stop and ask themselves, "Have I ever done the same thing?" "Am I guilty?" If this be done Captain Henry will go into the office with the largest vote ever given a man in Kentucky. If all men who drink liquor vote for him he will be elected by an overwhelming majority and the very men who preferred the charge of drunkenness against him will help that majority.

Capt. Henry is a representative citizen of Kentucky. Kentuckians who do not love liquor and women are the exception and not the rule. If we take him off, are we to put up an "exception"? If so, where will we find him? The papers that are clamoring for an investigation are slandering themselves and injuring their party. If the master be investigated and the charges proven, who has the authority to take Capt. Henry off? No one. What do they amount to anyway, with the average voters? Why they will realize that the thing to do for all men like Capt. Henry is to stick together, and very few men can consistently vote against him. We were sorry to see our usually level-headed contemporary, the Breckinridge News, go off half-cocked on the matter. It should reflect that the charge comes from the Commercial, a sheet that has become so dirty, in the hope of pleasing its master, the Stalwart President, that a decent man has to hold his nose to read it. We do not presume to "teach a British General how to fight," but the News is pursuing a course that would bring "Braddock's defeat" to the Democratic party, if all of the State press should do likewise. So far as we have seen the News is the only paper that has acted so hastily and inconsistently.

We desire to say to the Republican nominees for county offices, in the beginning of the campaign, that we intend to use every honorable means in our power to prevent their election. While we shall oppose them to the extent of our ability, we shall treat them with courtesy and fairness. We will "nothing extenuate, nor set down in malice," We will attack no man's private character, but as a Democratic organ the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN will go upon the principle, "wherever you see a hood, hit it," politically speaking.

It is another column will be found in the killing of Jesse James, the famous outlaw and train robber, by a youth only 21 years of age. There is something to excite pity when we contemplate the manner in which the brave bandit met his death. He had faced death a thousand times and was as courageous a man as ever walked the earth. It was a gallant soldier in the Confederate army at the age of 15 years and after serving under Quantrell till the close of the war joined a band of robbers of which he and his brother Frank have since been the leaders. For sixteen years they have been the terror of the whole country. Banks, trains and stage coaches have been robbed and scores of lives have been taken by the desperadoes. After all his daring deeds Jesse James has met his death at the hands of a boy. An unfair and cowardly advantage was taken of him, but it would have been suicidal for any one to have fought him fairly. It is stated that Ford and his brother were detectives and that the killing was in accordance with a preconcerted arrangement made with Gov. Crittenden, by which they were to get one fourth of the $10,000 reward. There is no doubt that it was the veritable Jesse James, as his wife and mother were examined at the inquest and testified as to his identity. His remains were turned over to his friends after the inquest. Jesse James is still alive and will probably take vengeance on his brother's murderer unless he proves himself exceedingly wary.

It will be remembered that we made mention a few weeks since that the killing was in accordance with a preconcerted arrangement made with Gov. Crittenden, by which they were to get one fourth of the $10,000 reward. There is no doubt that it was the veritable Jesse James, as his wife and mother were examined at the inquest and testified as to his identity. His remains were turned over to his friends after the inquest. Jesse James is still alive and will probably take vengeance on his brother's murderer unless he proves himself exceedingly wary.

It is the intention of the officers of the W. K. P. A. to call a meeting of the Association some time in May or June. The editor of the Banner has invited the body to meet in Princeton and the editor of the State Sentinel has extended a like invitation to it to hold its next convention in Henderson. The matter will be decided in a few days and the meeting called. We are confident that either town would be a pleasant place to meet.

The election held in the Third Senatorial district to select a Senator to fill out the unexpired term of Senator Wilkinson, deceased, resulted in the election of Mr. W. L. Weathers of Calloway county. The vote stood as follows:

Weathers, Wilson, Webb,	472	132	147
Calloway	672	5	17
Livingston	3	42	401
Lyon	1	936	6
	1143	1020	571

Weathers' majority over Wilson 128 votes; over Webb 372.

Senator Weathers is, of course, a Democrat and is a good substantial man.

Death of Maj. Kelly.

Maj. R. F. Kelly, probably the oldest man in the city, died Monday April 3, aged 81 years 3 months and 24 days. He was born in central Kentucky and came with his father's family to this country when quite young. He was formerly a member of the bar in this city and was elected to the Legislature in 1855-59. He afterwards moved to Kansas and remained several years. He returned to this city in 1871 where he has since lived. At one time he was well-to-do, but reverses came and he lost everything. He had been very feeble for some years but kept about occasionally. Only a few days before his death he was seen on the streets bowed down with the infirmities of age, supporting himself with a stick as he walked along tottering on the verge of the grave. He joined the Christian church about 7 years ago and lived a consistent member till the time of his death. He leaves no family and no immediate relatives.

HERE AND THERE.

"Phil Bell, ain't this h—?"
Snowballs are almost in bloom.
A few farmers are doing planting now.
Maple street is being macadamized at last.

Straw hats made their first appearance last week.

The seats in the Baptist church have been cushioned.

Everything is quiet since the Republican convention.

The bare-foot season has arrived and the small boy is in his glory.

Spring came on all at once and was about two weeks earlier than usual.

Remember the auction at Jno. G. Ellis' to day. Go and secure bargains.

There is very little sickness in the city now, excepting spring fever.

Bright hued spring dresses are beginning to enhance female loveliness.

A call upon J. C. Brasher to become a candidate for city judge, came in to late for insertion.

Large numbers of persons have been visiting the ice factory for the last few days.

Jno. G. Ellis will sell the remainder of his stock of dry goods, etc., at auction to day at 10 o'clock.

The Cong d'etat of the Republicans last week is not likely to pay out as well as the Cong de cirque next week.

The whole population of the city is wild on the subject of fishing. Suckers are biting quite well this season.

The SOUTH KENTUCKIAN was the only paper that gave the secret proceedings of the Republican convention.

Banks & Hargraves, the barbers, have returned to their former quarters in the room they occupied last fall, next door to Ellis' store.

The thermometer went up to 82 degrees in the shade on the 4th inst. On the 4th of last April six inches of snow was on the ground.

The indications are that Beverly Kelly, the colored nominee for coroner, will have to hold an inquest over a portion, at least, of the Republican ticket, before the 1st of August.

The Salt River Packet left last Tuesday with upwards of a score of passengers. The next regular trip will be made the 8th of August. We would advise some of the Republican candidates to engage state rooms in advance.

The Baptist Guild is to meet on Friday evening in the parlors of Bethel Female College. Entertainment by the Lotus Literary Society. Twenty-five cents admission. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church.

Hopkinsville, Ky., is building an exchange. She starts out with twenty subscribers. When we and she reach fifty subscribers, then a connection will be built so that any subscriber in Hopkinsville can talk to any subscriber in Clarksville—of course.

Messrs. Cowan, Huggins & McKeye are sole agents for the celebrated Thomas' Perfect Pulverizer. This is ahead of all other implements of its class. The pulverizing knives are made of the hardest, most durable steel. See card in another column.

Ike Hart has moved into his former store which was vacated in order that it might be remodeled and the ceiling raised. He now has a very handsome and spacious business house which he has just fitted with an enormous stock of spring goods.

The General Association of Kentucky Baptists met here in 1855 and the meeting in May will be the second time it has ever assembled in Hopkinsville. Active preparations are being made to entertain the visitors. It is expected that about 500 will be present.

There is a noticeable improvement in affairs about the depot platform. The people are with us in our efforts to abate the nuisance and we don't intend to stop until it is permanently suppressed. As the editor of a newspaper we claim and intend to exercise the prerogative of criticizing the records of public officials whenever we see fit, from President down to special policemen.

In another column will be found an advertisement of a stock sale which will come off in Nashville, Tenn., April 28th, the day before the great "Belle Meade" sale of Gen. W. G. Hardin. The sale will be conducted by Capt. Phil. C. Reid. In the list is a fine young three year old stallion bred by Mr. Tompkins, of Sumner county, Tenn., and said to be the finest young horse in Tenn.

Messrs. E. H. Hopper, Jas. A. Wallace, Sam M. Gaines, Jno. Stites and G. V. Green, trustees of the Christian County Library Association, held a business meeting Saturday. Of the nine trustees H. H. Coleman and Jno. P. Ritter were reported dead and Jno. S. Bryan and C. N. Pendleton absent. Messrs. C. H. Dietrich and H. M. Fairleigh were then elected to take the places of the deceased members. Messrs. Gaines, Stites and Green then resigned and Judges Joe McCullough, G. A. Champlin and Jas. L. Landes were elected in their stead.

Henry county Democratic ticket: Stampet Bence, judge; W. B. Moody, attorney; W. W. Turner, clerk; J. W. Casdine, sheriff; D. C. Adams, assessor; M. B. Ireland, jailer; J. N. Bishop, surveyor; W. Leiber, coroner.

Mr. T. L. Smith has purchased the old carriage shop on the east side of Virginia street, opposite his livery stable and turned it into the handsomest equine parlors in the city. It has been fitted up in the newest style with stalls capable of accommodating 28 horses. Tobs already had the largest stable in the city, but this addition was found necessary to accommodate his increasing patronage.

Engineer Dennis, who ran over the negro girl, Sarah Jane Orendorff, was tried for murder last Thursday before Judge Long. The charge was changed from murder to manslaughter, and Mr. Dennis held over to answer at Circuit court in August. There is nothing in the case and it is not likely that an indictment will be found. Mr. Dennis did all in his power to stop the train and even jeopardized the lives of the passengers by reversing the engine on the bridge.

"The Bank Exchange," is the name of a new saloon just fitted up in Cadiz by Lou Gaines. Everybody who knows Lou knows that he never does things by halves and he has fitted up and furnished his Exchange in a style never before equaled in Cadiz. He will keep constantly on hand all brands of the best liquors, imported brandies, wines and cigars. People who drink at all should drink the best liquors, and when you want to irrigate or fumigate in Cadiz, Lou Gaines is the man to supply you with the gin-a-wine articles.

The New Era suggests that the books and money of the "Christian County Library Association," which has ceased to exist, be donated to the Public School Library. There is about $300 in the hands of the Treasurer and also a large number of valuable books which are never read. The money was raised about eight years ago and has been lying idle since. The suggestion of our neighbor is a good one and we heartily endorse it.

The free dispensary is in full operation next door to this office. The managers have received liberal donations of medicines from Henry Thayer & Co., Cambridgeport, Mass.; Park & Davis & Co., Detroit, Mich.; Chas. T. White & Co., New York and Merrell, Thorpe & Lloyd, Cincinnati, Ohio. The dispensary is in the charge of Dr. C. D. Ellis and Dr. H. H. Wallace and persons, white or black, who are too poor to buy medicines can apply for and get attention by both allopathic and homoeopathic physicians. The office will be open every day from 1 to 2 o'clock P. M. Donations of bottles, bandages etc., will be thankfully received. Don't throw away your bottles boys, but send them to be used for the poor.

Messrs. Jas. L. Wilkins and Thos. J. Smith, two of the substantial citizens of Bowling Green, came to this city last week as a committee to inspect our public schools. They examined not only the structure but also the methods of heating, the fixtures, conveniences, etc., and inquired into the system of instruction followed in the institution. They expressed themselves highly pleased with the schools in every particular. Bowling Green has, by a popular vote, decided to establish a system of free schools similar to ours, and the gentlemen mentioned above came to get information on the subject.

Coup Outdoes Himself.

Great as the previous show enterprise of the famous showman, W. C. Coup, have been, he has outstripped them all and taken a long stride in advance of himself and all contemporaries by his magnificent and immense organization for the season of 1882. It will exhibit in Hopkinsville on Friday April 21st giving two performances at 2 and 8 P. M., when all the attractions of his past and varied establishment will be seen.

Mr. Coup has secured many new features and extraordinary attractions in addition to three first leading companies, the members of which will appear in their various specialties in an immense ring, it having been found that three rings distract the attention of the spectators and that their enjoyment is lessened in consequence. In these companies will be found the most distinguished and beautiful lady riders, the best male bare-back riders, six clowns, including the aesthetic clown "Oscar" and a whole army of general performers, who will contribute to make a lively programme.

Probably the most interesting novelty will be found in the Grand Historical Tableaux, representing the assassination of Garfield by Guiteau, in which there are said to be no less than five hundred figures, appropriately costumed with correctness of all the persons connected with the trial, such as Judge Cox, Judge Porter, the jury, counsel, etc.

The figure of Guiteau will be dressed in the identical suit of clothes worn by him at the time of the assassination, and the clothes in which he was tried will also be exhibited. The Tableaux are six in number, and represent all the important incidents from the assassination to the death sentence.

There will be a free balloon race every day with trapeze performance at 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. The Gazette says that the boys tore up the town in Bowling Green, by taking off gates etc., as an April fool, and half a dozen of them pulled up in the city court, to the amount of $14 each.

Mrs. Montague, Forepaugh's beauty, who sued the L. & N. railroad company for bruising her leg, at Bowling Green last September, has withdrawn the suit.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Post says there is a convict in the penitentiary, named Loards who is serving out a life sentence for the murder of a man who was afterwards found to be alive and who is still living.

Beauty Regained.

The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regulated by using Parker's Hair Balsam, which is much advised for its perfume, cleanliness and dandruff eradicating properties.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to billious attacks which may end in dangerous illness. Parker's Guin-ger Tonic will keep the kidneys and liver active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press.

The Philadelphia Times says:
"Love without a kiss would be like the harp without the hand, the rainbow without its hue, the brook without its babble, the landscape without its color, the tea rose without its odor, poetry without its rhythm or marriage without love." Or like sold-without syrup, a minstrel show without an end man, a slight ride without a girl, a cigar without a light, or like squeezing a girl without a hand in it. There's lots of things that love without a kiss is like, but there's little use in making comparisons, for nobody ever heard of that sort of love.
